RUDY THEATRE

Live at The Rudy (Rudy Theatre) in Selma, NC is a live music production, Opry style live entertainment created by Spook Joyner. We have been here 23 years entertaining groups from all over the county. Located half way through North Carolina on 95 Highway (Exit 97 and 98). Our Classic Country Jubilee starts in August and our famous Christmas Jubilee starts in November and runs through December bringing you 42 shows to choose from. We have a lot of concerts to choose from too. <https://www.rudytheatre.com>.

While you are in the area, Johnston County has many group-friendly attractions, no matter the type or size of your group. Offer your customers shopping outings at Carolina Premium Outlets, Hollywood glamour at the Ava Gardner Museum, or educational exploration at Clemmons State Forest or Howell Woods. Groups can enjoy history come to life at Bentonville Battlefield or an agritourism experience at the Tobacco Farm Life Museum, Boyette Farm, and Smith's Family Farm just to name a few. If your groups enjoy touring and tasting craft beverages, JoCo's Beer, Wine & Shine Trail has 7 stops throughout the county.
